Did I think it was a good book? I think it had some flaws in terms of plot holes, and it may be that Huxley was aware of them. I haven't read his introduction or Brave New World Revisited, so I don't know. I didn't like it, but sometimes I can recognize that a book is "good" without liking it, and I think this is one of those cases. It's good in the issues and themes it explores, I think.
